MIKE FELTON'S PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: THE GIFTS WE CHERISH

As we enter the holiday season, we look with gratitude on all the gifts we have been given. Last week the Law Foundation sent out our annual holiday postcard with a quote on the front from Les Brown that reads, "The best gifts are those we not only cherish, but put to use." As President of the Idaho

Law Foundation, I can tell you that we cherish the gifts you have given to our organization throughout this year and that we do our best to put your resources to good use on behalf of the legal community to benefit Idaho's citizens. READ MORE

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT: FAMILY LAW CHAMPION

Whether he is hearing cases, educating attorneys, or serving as a member of the Idaho Volunteer Lawyers Program Policy Council, Judge Russell Comstock has served as a tireless advocate for family law. The Idaho Law Foundation would like to thank him for the indelible mark he has left on the legal profession. READ MORE

DONOR SPOTLIGHT: CONTRIBUTING TO SUCCESS

Walt Sinclair has played an integral role in the success of the Access to Justice Idaho Campaign, ensuring funding for programs that increase access to civil legal services. And, while his accomplishments are too numerous to list in this article, it's safe to say that, for Walt Sinclair, his involvement with Access to Justice is part of an overall mission to make a difference in the Idaho and beyond.

IOLTA FUNDS LAW SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIPS

Since its inception, the Idaho Law Foundation, through the IOLTA grant program, has distributed nearly $60,000 in scholarships to students at Idaho law schools. Even with the prolonged drop in interest rates, the IOLTA grant program has still been able to continue providing some funding to support students in their educational endeavors. READ MORE

18 IN IDAHO PUBLICATION GETS AN UPDATE

In 2009, a group of law students developed a resource to help young adults better understand the law when they reach the age of majority. Turning 18 in Idaho: A Survival Guide for Teenagers was adapted for Idaho from a California publication. Since the initial printing, over 80,000 copies have been distributed to high schools and community groups throughout Idaho. And this year, the publication got a make-over.
